

MR. and MRS. DANIEL R. DALY

Dansville Couple Wed In Church Ceremony

Marriage vows and rings were exchanged Saturday (June 27, 1987) by Denise Marie Mann of Dansville RD 3 and Daniel Ray Daly of 27 Morris St., Dansville, at the United Methodist Church in Dansville.

The Rev. Calvin Sheasley performed a double-ring ceremony for a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Mann of Dansville RD 3 and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Daly of 21 Twin Drive, Dansville.

The altar and the candelabra were decorated with arrangements of flowers. Irene Willet of Dansville was the vocalist. The organist was Norma Sheasley of Dansville.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of organza and Belgian lace was styled with an empress bodice and mollen sleeves of lace adorned with seed pearls, and a sabrina neckline. Lace appliques detailed the organza skirt and cathedral train. She wore a Juliet cap with a fingertip-length veil. Lavender silk roses and carnations fashioned her bouquet.

Cheryl Mann of Dansville was the maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Pam Taggard of Haskinville, Meridy Ann Schutze, aunt of the bride, Susan Sahrle, Cindy Culbertson and Joann Derrenbacher, all of Dansville.

Douglas Daly of South Dansville, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. The ushers were Rob Guy, Bryan Thompson, Bob Starcker, Gort Welton, cousin of the bride, and Shawn Mann, brother of the bride, all from Dansville; and Andy Briggs and Jeremy Daly, nephew of the bridegroom, both of South Dansville.

Sara Shepard of Dansville, cousin of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. The ringbearer was Joshua Halpenny of Dansville, cousin of the bride.

The honor attendant was attired in an amethyst gown and flower headpiece. She carried a nosegay of lavender silk roses.

The bridesmaids, wearing lavender gowns and matching floral headpieces, also carried nosegays of lavender roses.

The flower girl wore a white lace gown accented with lavender ribbon. She carried a basket of lavender flowers and wore a wreath of white and lavender

Homemaker's Corner By KATHERINE T. HUMPHREY Cooperative Extension Agent

Puzzled by all the reports on radon in the home? Plan to attend one of the Radon Educational Programs in the Central Western New York area on Oct. 26 and 27.

"Radon: What It Is and What To Do About It" is sponsored by Cornell Cooperative Extension of Monroe, Ontario, Seneca and Wayne counties in cooperation with the State Health Department and New York State Electric and Gas Corp. and Rochester Gas and Electric Corp.

Speakers will be Joseph Laquaqua, professor and Extension housing specialist in the Department of Design and Environmental Analysis at Cornell University, and Laurence Keefe, radon program coordinator with the Bureau of Environmental Radiation Protection for the State Department of Health. Topics include: What Radon Is, How Radon Enters the Home, Reducing Radon Levels, and Testing For Radon.

If interested, sign up with Cornell Cooperative Extension, Ontario County, 480 North Main Street, Canandaigua (176-394-3977) by Oct. 13. You may attend the program either on Monday, Oct. 26 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Jordan Hall at the State Agricultural Experiment Station in Geneva or on Tuesday, Oct. 27 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Fairport Public Library.

The registration fee is $2.00 per individual/couple payable in advance. The program is open to the public; but seating is limited.

Candy Stripper Class Planned at Hospital

A fall training course for the Candy Stripper program will be offered starting Oct. 27, at Noyes Memorial Hospital.

Open to boys and girls 14 years of age and older, instruction will be provided during two or three two-hour classes each week for three weeks.

Upon completion of training, Candy Stripers will assist the staff and patients in the hospital a minimum of four hours a week.

Those interested in becoming a part of a Junior Volunteer Program that provides experience in the hospital environment should obtain an application form from the switchboard operator in the lobby. The completed forms are to be returned by Oct. 19.

When the applications are accepted, the applicants will be contacted by the Candy Stripper instructor.

PASSPORT

Passport derives from two French words: "passer," to pass, and "port," meaning harbor. Originally granting permission to enter a nation's ports, the documents were issued to ships as well as to people. The earliest passports were "letters of transit" written by rulers or other authorities.
